

Videos that bring PH to life

Help people around you to understand some of the challenges of living with pulmonary hypertension by directing them to these PHA UK videos.

Simply scan the codes with your mobile phone!

Two minutes to understand PH

This simple animation shows exactly what PH is and how it is treated.

Breathless: Every second, every hour, every day

In this feature-length film, PHA UK member Julie offers an honest insight into what it means to live with breathlessness.

What is PH?

A more scientific explanation of the condition, with full details of what's going on inside the body.

More videos overleaf →

The true emotional impact of PH

Seven people living with PH share the impact of the condition on their mental and emotional wellbeing.

The true financial impact of PH

Four families explain how their finances have been affected following a diagnosis of pulmonary hypertension.

“One Word”

In this emotive short film, people affected by pulmonary hypertension describe the condition in just one word.

The hidden impact of PH

A short animation to highlight that not all of pulmonary hypertension’s challenges can be seen on the surface.

